

Phrases: Gerunds, Infinitives, Participials

Name:

Class:

Teacher:

Date:

Directions: Where do the underlined verbal phrases belong? Select from Gerund Phrases, Infinitive Phrases, or Participial Phrases.

ITEMBANK:

Being the accounts manager made Milo feel important. Finding a ride to practice is hard.

Having been raised on a farm, Jennie knew the importance of hard work.

Hiking for two hours, Ashley developed blisters on both feet. Andrew agreed to give me his old bike.

Children involved in sports early develop healthy living habits.

Ernestine got into trouble for faking a toothache to avoid school. Everyone wanted the Silver Foxes to win the championship.

Fred's favorite activity is blowing bubbles to his little sister. I have a sucker to eat before class.

Joe asked me to bring his jacket. Neil recognized his teacher standing in the checkout line.

Gerund Phrases

Infinitive Phrases

Participial Phrases

--	--	--

Your Classroom Partner