

Phrases: Gerunds, Infinitives, Participials - Key

Name:

Class:

Teacher:

Date:

Directions: Where do the underlined verbal phrases belong? Select from Gerund Phrases, Infinitive Phrases, or Participial Phrases.

Gerund Phrases

Infinitive Phrases

Participial Phrases

Finding a ride to practice is hard.

Ernestine got into trouble for faking a toothache to avoid school.

Being the accounts manager made Milo feel important.

Fred's favorite activity is blowing bubbles to his little sister.

I have a sucker to eat before class.

Andrew agreed to give me his old bike.

Everyone wanted the Silver Foxes to win the championship.

Joe asked me to bring his jacket.

Neil recognized his teacher standing in the checkout line.

Having been raised on a farm, Jennie knew the importance of hard work.

Children involved in sports early develop healthy living habits.

Hiking for two hours, Ashley developed blisters on both feet.